St. James Church

ST. JAMES' CHURCH, Goose Creek, S. C.—Built A. D. 1713. Within its sacred walls are many historic and memorial tablets and hatchments. Over the western entrance is a fine reproduction of the seal of the "Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts" of London: "A Pelican Feeding Her Young."

Post Card

This space for Correspondence only

Place Stamp Here

United States and Canada One Cent

Foreign Two Cents

Only the Address may be written here